SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1925

NUMBER 26

Adopt Revised Map Of Menlo

The county board of supervisors Monday morning adopted a revised map of the proposed municipality of Menlo Park, which excludes the so-called "ranch lands" or "outside acreage," over which an argument has developed between incorporationists and owners of property who do not wish to have their lands included in the area of Menlo Park, should it be incorporated.

The map was introduced by Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey, who moved its adoption, seconded by Supervisor Manuel Francis. The vote was: Chairman John MacBain and Supervisors Hickey and Francis, yes; and Supervisor Thompson, no. Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown was absent.

Acceptance of the map met with the vigorous protest of Attorney James O'Keefe, representing the pro-incorporationists. He said: "Adopt this revised map and 1800 men and women of the Menlo Park district will not be your friends."

Attorney Lee Ross appeared again in behalf of property owners who declare that their holdings are made up of "outside" acreage or agricultural land.

A. C. Hobart, member of the Palo Alto city council, and who owns fifteen acres on Olive, Santa Cruz and Middle avenues, protested inclusion before the board. He said he planned to use his land for agricultural purposes.

W. J. Murray of Menlo Park gave to the supervisors a report of the action taken by a committee appointed to settle the dispute over the proposed boundaries. He said the committee was deadlocked, but offered as a compromise to exclude the property of Messrs. Garland and Price, comprising sixty acres.

Another matter considered by the supervisors was the paving of El Camino Real through San Mateo. On motion of Supervisor Hickey, the city of San Mateo will be urged to pave the shoulders of the stretch, while the county will take care of the center portion.

The resignation of George Fry as county dairy inspector was accepted. John G. Garland was appointed to succeed him. The appointee has had experience in Wisconsin and Michigan.

Injuries Fatal To John M. Wheaton

John M. Wheaton, 2333 Bush Street, San Francisco, died Sunday at Mills Memorial Hospital, San Mateo, from injuries received on Friday when his automobile skidded from the Skyline Boulevard near the Crystal Springs Country Club. The injured man was brought to the hospital after passing motorists found him pinned beneath the wreckage of the car. He was suffering from a skull fracture and internal injuries.

The deceased was employed in this city at the steel mills and was extremely popular here. He was a member of P. P. I. E. Lodge No. 5, Steelworkers' Union. He was a native of Greenville, Pa., 50 years of age. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Helen M. Wheaton, San Francisco.

Following an inquest Monday at South San Francisco, funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Neri's funeral home, South San Francisco. Interment was in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Memorial Park. The many floral tributes and large attendance at the funeral attested to his popularity among his co-workers and citizens generally.

CELEBRATES SILVER ANNIVERSARY EVENT

Father Thomas Heverin, for the past eight years priest of St. Bruno's Catholic Church, San Bruno, Sunday celebrated the silver anniversary of his entry into the priesthood.

Following the solemn high mass the service was preached by the Rev. Patrick O'Neill of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, San Francisco.

Father Heverin was ordained June 19, 1900. He was formerly with the Star of the Sea Parish and St. Agnes' Parish, San Francisco, coming to San Bruno in August, 1918.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND PARTY IN BURLINGAME

The following local ladies attended the card party given by the Burlingame Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday afternoon of last week: Mesdames A. Schmidt, L. Kert, C. Nussell, P. Bowler, J. O. Snyder, H. Cavassa, A. Eschelbach, C. Schurk, J. Holbrook, F. Schwingle, S. Kiessling, G. Selby, E. Hargraves and Misses Bernice Holbrook and M. Kiessling.

THE TEACHERS AND VACATIONS

H. J. Holt will attend classes at Berkeley for the coming six weeks, before moving to Santa Barbara, where he is the newly appointed head of the science department in the high school there.

Robert E. Reed left Sunday afternoon for Yosemite, where he will spend about six weeks.

Miss Helen Reed left Monday for a short visit in Berkeley.

Miss Clara P. Simon expects to go to her home in Salt Lake City for a time, then return to Berkeley in the fall.

The Misses Vera, Beatrice and Bertha Maple have their parents from Oklahoma as guests. The family expects to motor in California during the vacation.

Miss Ava Connelly and Miss Malinda Gibson left Monday for a vacation in Canada, later to visit their homes in Iowa and Oklahoma respectively.

Miss Mary E. Knowles is spending her vacation in the vicinity of Monterey.

Miss Rue R. Clifford expects to spend her vacation with various relatives in different parts of California.

Dance Was Success

The initial dance staged by the Sociedad Espanola (Spanish Mutual Benevolent Society) in Fraternal Hall on Saturday last was a social and financial success. A good, orderly crowd and a splendid time was the verdict of all. The society contemplates another dance in the near future.

Awards Contract For New School

The school board on Tuesday evening considered the various bids submitted for the new school improvements as voted upon by the people in the last $170,000 school bond election and the following awards were made: For the gymnasium, $49,517 (awarded to Charles Peterson); grammar school, Grand Avenue, new building, $94,177 (awarded to R. C. Stickle); Martin School, addition, awarded to R. C. Stickle for $15,134. The plumbing was awarded to the firm of F. W. Snook Company of San Francisco for $11,575. The plumbing for the gymnasium was awarded to the South San Francisco Plumbing Company for $4,487. Owing to the fact that these awards will take up all the appropriations, the grading contemplated, also a few other details, will have to be deferred.

United Railways Wants Rehearing

City Attorney Davis is in receipt of a copy of an application for a rehearing before the railroad commission on the Orange Avenue crossing matter. This application sets forth reasons why, in the opinion of the vice-president of the United Railway Company, George B. Willcutt, and its attorneys, William Abbott, I. R. Dains and K. W. Cannon, the rehearing should be granted. Nine pages of typewritten legal paper set forth the reasons. The principal bone of contention on the part of the United Railways appears to be that an over-grade crossing should be constructed. Many other points were, of course, cited in rather lengthy document, more or less of a legal nature. What the railroad commission will do is, of course, impossible to state and the citizens of South San Francisco and district will no doubt watch the outcome with keen interest. The application of the city was granted on June 3 and was to become effective twenty days thereafter, or on Tuesday of this week.

FIREMEN STAGE BIG BARBECUE AND PICNIC

On Sunday last at Fuller's Beach the members of the South San Francisco fire company staged a picnic and some well barbecued. Peter Lind was the high chef on this occasion, and it is needless to state that the meat was barbecued to perfection. The committee in charge of the enjoyable outing consisted of Jim McDonald, Les Howard, Mike Burns and Joe Barnard.

Curses, 'Twas False

The local fire lads were called out to San Bruno road and Butler road on Sunday night about 8:30 and when they arrived no one appeared to know where the fire was, had been or would be. Well, it was a good run, anyhow.

Improvement Of City Discussed At Citizens Committee Meeting Monday

Forty representative citizens of the one hundred appointed recently by Mayor McNellis to study the problems confronting South San Francisco in regards to improvements deemed necessary to keep pace with the advancement of this important manufacturing center met in the city hall on Monday night in answer to a call issued by Chairman Phil Thompson of the general committee.

The meeting was a very representative one and some excellent points were brought out. After briefly stating the object of the meeting, Chairman Thompson called upon the various members to express their views. Mrs. E. P. Kaufman, president of the Woman's Club, was the first one called upon. She stated in connection with the improvement of the civic center that the women favored the beautifying of the civic center, but the majority did not advocate the expenditure at this time of any large sum of money. The general opinion among the members of the club seemed to be that the planting of shrubbery and otherwise beautifying the grounds would suffice at this time.

Mr. A. Hynding, the next speaker, stated that he believed that the majority of people in the city desired improvements, but in his opinion the general committee should formulate some workable plan. In connection with the park sites, these should be improved, but he was opposed to employing a high salaried man to lay out the work on a big salary. Rather, in his opinion, a competent landscape engineer could be engaged at a certain fee and several thousand dollars saved. He cited the fact that the present civic center had lain dormant for many years and improvements there should be gone ahead with, but this was a matter for the board of trustees to determine.

As for the 20-acre park site, something should be done there as soon as practical to do so. Mrs. Winterhalter, in commenting on the improvements, prefaced her remarks with the prediction that within the next five years this city would boast of a population of 20,000 and she strongly advocated a civic auditorium, which at the same time would constitute a splendid memorial to the boys from South San Francisco who had given their services to flag and country. In this respect, with 177 veterans to her credit, South San Francisco led all other cities in California in proportion to population.

Mr. A. T. Arnt, the next speaker, expressed himself as very much in favor of the improving of the civic center and the parks, but advised caution in the expenditure of large sums of money.

Pete Marriani contended that the improvement of the fire department should be the first consideration. This department saved life and property, and, in his opinion, was of more importance than the improving of the present civic center. The civic center could be greatly improved by cutting the weeds, etc. Mr. Marriani pointed out how money expended for an improved fire department would come back to the people in the shape of reduced insurance rates. He stated that people were pleased enough to pocket the $10 saved by a decrease in insurance rates, but appeared to be very reluctant in paying out $1.00 to improve the department which brought about this saving in insurance.

Fire Chief B. H. Trux was short in detail in regards to the present shortcomings of the department and cited the lack of a proper pumper, the shortage of hose, etc.

Secretary Joseph Walker of the Manufacturers' Association, after making it plain that he was not talking officially, but as an individual, saw no reason to expend large sums of money on the fire department. He conceded that additional equipment was necessary, but thought that the present truck could be improved and that with the purchase of a Dodge car to carry hose and other less expensive additions the fire fighting facilities could be greatly improved. Mr. Walker advocated a direct tax instead of a bond issue on the grounds that a bond issue, with interest, etc., would entail a rather heavy expenditure.

City Trustee A. J. Eschelbach conceded the necessity of better fire fighting facilities, but contended that the city should be guided in this matter by the board of fire underwriters and fire officials. He favored a bond issue for the improvement of the civic center and the parks improvement. In his opinion, the committee should study the question as to the extent of the bonds, the term of years they are to run, etc., and then utmost publicity should be given through the press to the people, so that they would know just what the entire expenditure, including interest, would be.

Dr. McGovern was strongly in favor of an improved fire engine and stated that his last official act while a member of the board was to provide for improved fire fighting facilities. He contended that what at that time was adequate was now out of date. He believed in progress and thought a progressive movement should be inaugurated.

Mr. E. C. Peck declared that he owned a little property in the city and was willing to be taxed as long as it was for improvements and for the advancement of South San Francisco. He designated it a shame the way the civic center, with its splendid city hall building, had been neglected. He strongly advocated that the grounds be beautified.

Mr. Enrico Rosetti was of the opinion that a bond issue would be too great a burden and considered the Orange Avenue extension the most important matter at this time. (Chairman Thompson informed Mr. Rosetti that this matter was in the hands of the board of trustees, who, he understood, were working out some sort of scheme to finance this project.) Mr. Rosetti contended that the beautification of the civic center should be attended to. As for the fire department and protection of the many factories, he claimed that each factory had its own fire protection.

President Cavassa of the Merchants' Association thought that the merchants generally favored better fire protection, improved parks and beautifying of the civic center.

At this point City Attorney John Davis was asked to give a comparative idea of what other communities in the county were doing along these lines. The city attorney upheld Chief Trux in connection with an improved fire department and cited the fact that practically all of the smaller communities were proportionately ahead of South San Francisco in this respect. In regards to improved parks, he stated that no other city on the entire peninsula had three such splendid park sites as had South San Francisco. In regards to financing the various projects, he was heartily in favor of having a bond issue in order that the cost of improvements would be borne in part by the future generation, who would derive the benefit, instead of placing the entire burden on people at this time by a direct tax.

P. J. Shaw, general manager of the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company, stated that he was not in a position to speak for the company he represented, but personally he favored an executive committee being appointed by the general committee. He thought the bonding conditions of South San Francisco were in such excellent shape that local bonds would bring a good price on the market. With capable men on the executive committee to work out the details and report back to the general committee, some feasible plan could be worked out. The 20-acre park site should be attended to, in his opinion. The civic center should be given careful and favorable consideration and the fire department should be improved.

Mr. Howard thought the fire company was the paramount issue.

Mr. Edgar Lewis expressed himself as heartily in favor of every project that had been brought forward that evening and cited facts in connection with the fire department, declaring that the general public was not aware of the shortcomings. He stated that South San Francisco had excellent water mains and in that respect the fire department was fortunate. He favored a bond issue of at least $100,000 (this being the first time during the evening that any specific sum had been mentioned).

Mr. Pete Palla, as he was leaving the room, was asked what he thought of the proposition and declared that he was in favor of improvements and was willing to leave the details to the executive committee.

Mr. Nieri declared he was in favor of an improved civic center and an improved fire department.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE NAMED

At the suggestion of Chairman Phil Thompson of the general committee of one hundred, appointed to study the improvements deemed necessary for South San Francisco, at the meeting of the general committee in the city hall on Monday night, Messrs. Hynding, Arndt and City Attorney Davis, after going into executive session, returned with the recommendation that the following be appointed on the executive committee: F. A. Cunningham, representing the board of trustees; Ira Potter, Father Moran, J. O. Snyder, Mrs. E. P. Kaufman, W. H. Dinning, W. J. Hyland, H. Cavassa, P. R. Thompson and B. H. Trux.

Secretary Walker of the Manufacturers' Association moved that the names of Mr. Kardos and John Williams be added. It was then found that the executive committee numbered thirteen, and as this was considered a sort of jinx, the name of B. J. Rodondi was added.

After this executive committee was unanimously endorsed, Chairman Thompson requested Mayor McNellis to take the chair and then introduced the following resolution:

"The executive committee is authorized to determine a program for public improvements in South San Francisco, particularly in regards (1) to the beautification of the civic center; (2) improvement of the fire department; (3) improvement of the park site and any other improvements that the executive committee in its study considers should be placed before the citizens' committee as a whole. The executive committee is also authorized to determine ways and means for consummation of the improvements it finally recommends to the committee as a whole. In preparing its recommendations the executive committee is instructed to segregate essential and non-essential improvements and show the estimated cost of each improvement, with the total cost of all improvements it recommends, so that when its recommendations finally come before the committee it will be in such form that the committee can adopt as its program to recommend to the city trustees whatever item it, as a committee, is in accord upon." This resolution was unanimously adopted.

President George W. Holston, of the Chamber of Commerce, first speaker, in a brief address dwelt on the benefits of civic organization, advocating teamwork. He took this occasion to bring up the Bay Shore Highway matter, appealing to the merchants and business men to get solidly behind the highway commission.

City Attorney Davis also strongly advocated organization, took up the highway question and cited various contemplated civic improvements. He advocated getting behind Harvey M. Toy in the Bay Shore Highway matter.

Manager P. R. Thompson, of the Chamber of Commerce, sounded the keynote when he appealed to the merchants for more attractive stores. Also he detailed various matters that had been done by his organization, civic officials and prominent citizens in furthering the best interests of the Bay Shore Highway project and other important public improvements.

Enrico Rosetti, called upon to make a few remarks, declared that it was the duty of the working people, and in fact, the citizens in all walks of life, to co-operate with the public officials and civic organizations for anything that would tend to the betterment and advancement of their community.

Gold Rush Is Now On In Colma Dist.

There is a big demand for poultry in Colma these days and also residents of this community, it is stated, are purchasing picks and shovels and gold pans. Louis Nava of the Colma Meat Market finds a decided increase in his poultry business and it is freely stated that in private homes many chickens have been getting it in the neck, while chicken dinners have even taken the place of corn beef and cabbage, ravioli, etc.

Old timers have visions of the good old days of '49 and even some, it is stated, have staked out claims in Colma. It all came about by the purchase of several chickens last week at the Colma Meat Market by Mrs. Jack Kennedy. In one of these chickens Mrs. Kennedy found a gold nugget, hence the present gold excitement in Colma.

FOOD SALE

The Ladies' Aid will hold their monthly food sale June 25 at Carmody's store. Mrs. A. P. Scott and Mrs. G. Selby will be in charge.

Some of the members of the junior class of the local high school and friends attended a theater party at the Orpheum Monday evening, June 22. Those who made up the party were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Weller, who acted as chaperons; Misses May Jennings, Violet Georgi, Eida Arsalino, Edith Whitehouse and Messrs. Elmer Vaccari, Chester Perazzo, Frank Whitehouse, A. Griffiths and Jean Dotson.

Taxes Coming In Nicely

City Clerk Daniel McSweney stated on Tuesday that the current year's taxes were coming in very nicely. In fact, all taxes are practically paid in on the current account. Delinquent taxes are being paid more slowly, however.

SENIOR LUNCHEON AT HIGH SCHOOL

Last Thursday noon the annual senior luncheon was served at the high school. About seventy-five people attended, including the faculty and wives, board members, the graduates of the January and June, 1925, classes and members of the junior and low senior classes. The affair took place on the gym floor, which was decorated with palm branches, flowers and latices of vines. Down the center of each table stood a row of blue and white dunces caps, each of which was donated by the respective place card owners. It was an amusing sight. A novel feature of seating the men teachers on high stools was the occasion of much comment.

A short program of entertainment was furnished by the following: Nell Coffinberry in a piano selection; Helen Lauer as a fairy in fancy dancing; Maxine Mills in the solo, "Sally," responding to an encore with "All Alone," and Doris Aylworth in three dances, making a hit with the horripidae dance especially.

Lois Aylworth was toastmistress, and ably carried along the stem of interest by having various ones respond to the parts of an automobile, such as steering wheel, headlights, dimmers, bumpers, spark plugs, brakes, speedometer, cylinders, driver and running board. Mr. Roney spoke for the steering wheel and Mr. Cavassa the running board.

At the conclusion of the affair, the juniors presented Miss Bertha Maple with flowers in appreciation of her successful work and the low seniors gave Mr. Holt a fountain pen as a token of friendship for their class teacher.

Noon Luncheon Splendid Affair

The noon luncheon held under the auspices of the South San Francisco Merchants' Association in the Poodle Dog Cafe yesterday afternoon was a success in every way and the committee, headed by Mr. Charles B. Hodgkin, in charge of this splendid affair, deserve great credit. Also Mrs. Baradat can well feel proud of the splendid repast served and the decorative and other arrangements in evidence in the cozy dining room. About forty representative merchants and business men attended the combination luncheon meeting, and with short, snappy addresses by various speakers, augmented by a straight from the shoulder talk on the Bay Shore Highway project by Harvey M. Toy, chairman of the state highway commission, the luncheon proved not only enjoyable but educational as well.

President Cavassa of the Merchants' Association proved a capable toastmaster, and to start the entertaining feature of the program called upon Secretary Joe Walker of the Manufacturers' Association for several vocal numbers. It is needless to say that this talented vocalist, as usual, drew forth well merited applause. An agreeable surprise in this connection was the fact that Miss South San Francisco accompanied Mr. Walker on the piano. Miss South San Francisco proved to be none other than pretty Muriel Baradat and she certainly looked the part, with the neat silk sash proclaiming the fact, which fact hardly was required. She was accorded a splendid ovation by the assembled citizens and also was presented with a splendid bouquet of flowers.

President George W. Holston, of the Chamber of Commerce, first speaker, in a brief address dwelt on the benefits of civic organization, advocating teamwork. He took this occasion to bring up the Bay Shore Highway matter, appealing to the merchants and business men to get solidly behind the highway commission.

City Attorney Davis also strongly advocated organization, took up the highway question and cited various contemplated civic improvements. He advocated getting behind Harvey M. Toy in the Bay Shore Highway matter.

Manager P. R. Thompson, of the Chamber of Commerce, sounded the keynote when he appealed to the merchants for more attractive stores. Also he detailed various matters that had been done by his organization, civic officials and prominent citizens in furthering the best interests of the Bay Shore Highway project and other important public improvements.

Enrico Rosetti, called upon to make a few remarks, declared that it was the duty of the working people, and in fact, the citizens in all walks of life, to co-operate with the public officials and civic organizations for anything that would tend to the betterment and advancement of their community.

The next speaker, the guest of honor, Harvey M. Toy, chairman of the state highway commission, took

Awards Given Out At Commencement

The following awards were made on commencement night at the high school:

To Sylvia Thomas and Zilpha Dunlap, each a block letter signet ring, presented by the Girls' Block Letter Society of the high school.

To George Wohler and Clara I. Poket, each a permanent silver trophy as tied winners in the second annual typing contest; cups presented by Mr. Weller, head of the commercial department.

To Edith Taylor, a small permanent silver trophy as the winner in the first year section of the typing contest; presented by Miss Pedrett, typing teacher.

To Violet Georgi, a blue and white pennant as the winner of the one-semester section of the typing contest; presented by Miss Pedrett.

To Clara I. Poket, two permanent silver trophies as the winner in the county typing contest in second and first year divisions; presented by the Jefferson Union High School.

To Dorothy Learmouth, a permanent silver trophy for highest scholarship during the school year, 1924-25; presented by Mr. Roney.

To the freshmen girls and to the senior boys, each a permanent silver trophy as winners in the inter-class track meets; presented by the class of December, 1924.

To the graduating class, the perpetual silver trophy for highest class scholarship average; presented by the class of June, 1922; also the school scholarship banner.

To the senior class, the school attendance banner for the class having the best attendance.

To Julia Guadagni, a permanent bronze medal for third highest point winner in athletics on the entire peninsula; presented by the Girls' Peninsula Athletic League.

To H. J. Holt, a white gold watch; presented by the graduating class in appreciation of their class teacher.

To nineteen graduates, each a diploma set in a blue plush leather cover; presented by the school.

To the school, a trophy case; presented by the class of December, 1924, placed in the corridor near the bulletin case of the class of June, 1924.

To the school, a Gettysburg address plaque, presented by the graduating class, to be placed on the wall between the two aforementioned cases.

Alleged Cattle Thief Bound Over

Constable Jim Wallace, who has been working on cattle rustling cases for some time in the northern part of the county, on Monday arrested Jerry Horkey, a butcher of Colma, who is charged with having stolen a cow from A. Rosia of South San Francisco. Horkey was taken before Judge Farrell and arraigned on a charge of grand larceny, being bound over in the sum of $5,000, on Tuesday. He was able to secure two securities on the bond.

occasion to compliment South San Francisco on its splendid main street and the many new buildings constructed and under construction. He declared this was conclusive evidence that the citizens, merchants and officials realized the great future in store for this city. He emphasized the fact that South San Francisco was a city of definite destiny and said, "I predict a great future for South San Francisco. It can't be otherwise."

He complimented Mayor McNellis and Manager Thompson, of the Chamber of Commerce, for their foresight in arranging the recent meeting in San Francisco with the state highway commission, declaring that it was, without doubt, one of the finest meetings held since he was chairman of that commission. Mr. Toy concluded his remarks by going into detail in regard to the Bay Shore project and after listening to this sincere and eloquent speaker there could be no doubt in the minds of any of his hearers that this was a matter close to his heart.

The banquet was concluded with a few remarks from Charles B. Hodgkin, who dwelt at some length on the fact that the Manx Hotel was a splendid institution. He also appealed to the merchants of the city to take more interest in the Merchants' Association, predicting a bright future for that organization if conducted along the proper lines.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO ENTERPRISE, THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1925

A HEALTHY CONDITION

Recently two very gratifying incidents came to our notice in which members of our younger generation took an active part, and as it effects the public press we make special mention of it editorially. In South San Francisco an interesting debate was held at the local high school on the subject: "Should newspapers be prohibited from publishing news of crime and sensational news?" At the San Mateo Union High School, Clifford F. Weigle of Lomita Park, a Gold Seal honor student, gave an interesting address on "The Press—Its Power for Good and Its Power for Evil." At the beginning of this editorial we stated that two very gratifying incidents came to our notice. Why were they gratifying?

This should be plain to be seen by any newspaper publisher and editor who is really an advocate of clean journalism. People take too much for granted in the PRESS, especially in the community press. That is why the professional politicians back a community newspaper which is subservient to their orders and do everything in their power to hamper or put out of business entirely the community newspapers advocating CLEAN journalism. In San Mateo County, and this is the county in which we are interested, we have some splendid community newspapers. Unfortunately, however, we have also political sheets, being published under the guise of community newspapers. The latter papers disregard entirely the duties they owe to the community and the public. They ignore their great responsibility. They listen only to their master's voice, the political clique and the professional politicians. They suppress certain news and play up other news not as important, only insofar as it hands out bouquets to certain politicians. There have been cases, in every county where newspapers have been started and supported by the professional politicians because the existing publician in that particular community could not be controlled. These politicians hand out certain concessions to the favored press. They have even been known to amend certain laws in order to favor the political press. In fact we will go still further and state that they have even been known to "take chances" on certain laws in order to favor the publicans upon which they can depend to advance their personal political interests. Professional politicians have absolutely no use for an honest publisher or editor. Therefore it is the duty of the citizens of a community who are advocates of clean journalism to support the newspaper in their particular community that the professional politicians are working against. Get us right on this, however. ALL MEN RUNNING FOR OFFICE ARE NOT PROFESSIONAL POLITICIANS. Neither are all men now in office in that category. San Mateo County, as has every other county, has its share of professional politicians, and these are the ones to whom we refer. Back of these professional politicians are the private interests that put up the CASH. In the near future we will probably decide to qualify our statements in this respect, citing incidents which even the citizens whom we are pleased to term "the average reader," can understand. Consequently, we are gratified at the news that our younger generation is taking a keen interest in journalism.

PREPARE NOW TO PROTECT TREES

Leading Pacific Coast lumbermen and federal officials have been conferring in San Francisco for the purpose of working out plans designed to lessen the annual forest fire hazard. It is the first time that such a gathering has been called for the purpose of co-ordinating forest fire prevention measures.

The chief forester of the United States and representatives of various timber associations and individual lumbermen attended the conference. Such preventive measures as oil burners, instead of coal or wood engines for sawmills; equipment of mills with fire pumps and the constant cleaning up of inflammable material where timber cutting is going on were considered.

To secure the maximum results in forest protection the public must realize that a large part of the responsibility for forest fires rests on its shoulders and campers and users of our forests and forest roads should use the greatest care in starting and putting out camp fires and in discarding matches, cigar and cigarette stubs and pipe ashes.

SACRAMENTO BOY IS SOUGHT BY PARENTS

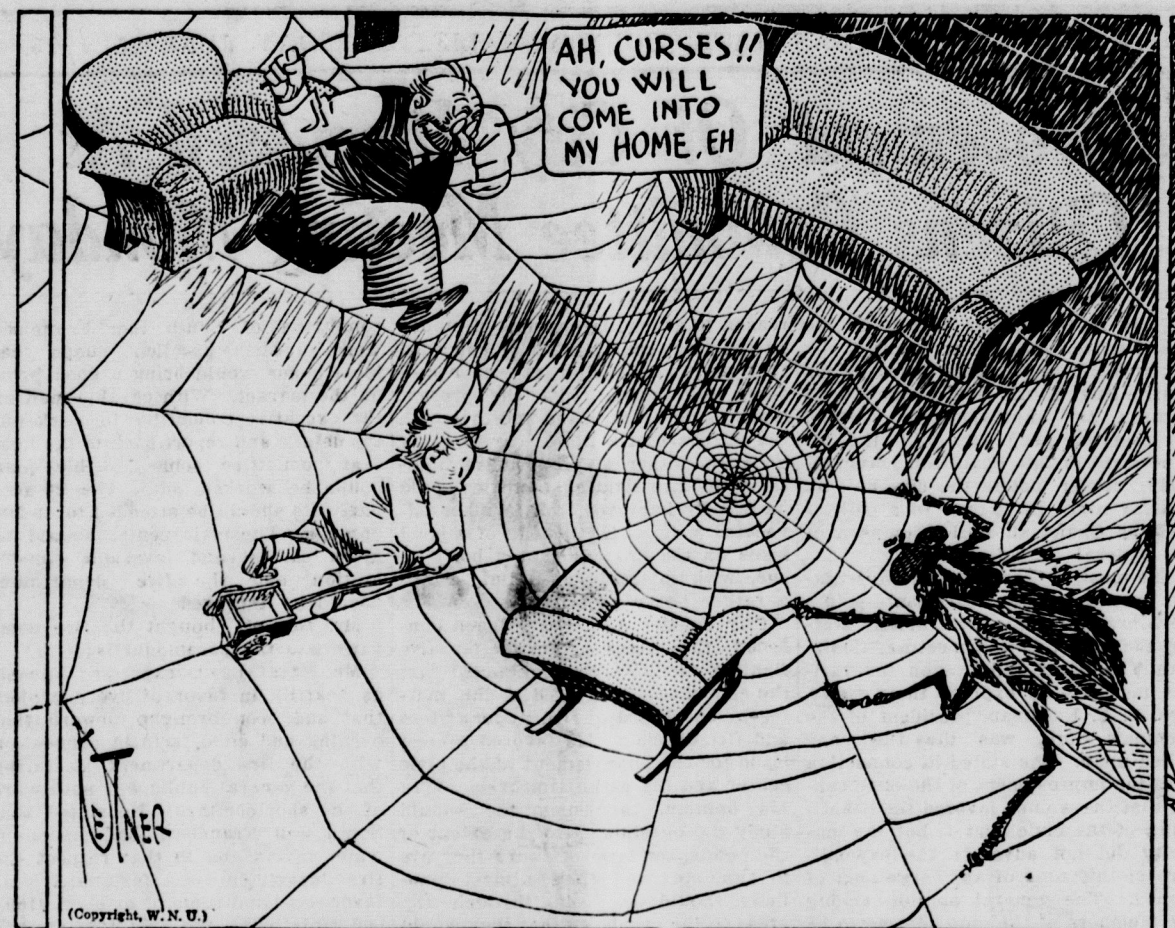

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—A statewide search for Donald Moore, 23, son of Thomas Moore, special agent for the Southern Pacific at Sacramento, has just been launched by his father, in co-operation with city, county and state peace officers.

The boy was last seen May 31, when he left his home at 1180 Thirty-seventh Street, Sacramento, when he told his mother that he was going downtown. No word has been received from him since and his parents fear that he has met with foul play. Dan O'Connell, chief special agent for the Southern Pacific, has notified the company's special officers to be on the watchout for the missing lad. During the World War young Moore served in the navy.

The Spider and the Fly

'Twas In the Early Days

(Enterprise, 25 Years Ago)

Friday was a very busy day on the San Bruno Road. Two of San Francisco's wisest mounted police were patrolling the turnpike from Henry Blanken's place as far south as Baden, inquiry into everybody's business but their own. They repeatedly made some of the clam diggers, wade through the mud and out on the road in order to satisfy their curiosity, whether they had a "Kid" Goucher, a Browne or a Leadville Jimmy. During the celebration of their holiday they enjoyed themselves in a way that only San Francisco officers can. At the very time their merriment was at its height a poor and unsuspecting clam digger was turning over his kitchen stove, dishpans, pots, beds, mattresses and even stood on his head after turning his pockets inside out in order to satisfy two masked high-binders that he had no money about him. The robbers, however, were rewarded by discovering a bottle half full of Hunter rye whiskey. A mile from the first robbery chronicled in C. A. Warren's quarry bunkhouse, which was also robbed of nearly everything which was transportable. In the evening the brave uniformed lads returned to Frisco and probably turned in a report which would take a police commissioner fourteen hours to read, and felt that they had done their duty to the full extent of the law.

The First Step Taken

On Tuesday the board of fire commissioners of South San Francisco met and organized by electing W. J. Martin chairman and D. O. Daggett secretary. The board then proceeded to fix and establish the fire limits in and for the town of South San Francisco. The limits of the fire district were described by streets and bounds and are as follows:

Beginning at a point where the easterly line of Division Street intersects the southerly line of Railroad Avenue, and running thence westerly along said southerly line of Railroad Avenue to the intersection of the same with the easterly line of Magnolia Avenue, thence northerly along said easterly line of Magnolia Avenue to the intersection of the same with the southerly line of Miller Avenue, thence easterly along said southerly line of Miller Avenue to the intersection of the same with the easterly line of Maple Avenue, thence northerly along the said easterly line of Maple Avenue to the intersection of the same with the southerly line of Armour Avenue, thence easterly along the said southerly line of Armour Avenue to the intersection of the same with the easterly line of Division Street, thence southerly along said easterly line of Division Street to the point of beginning.

If the weather remains favorable and it does not rain or the sun does not shine too brightly, and if he has good luck, the cook at quarry wharf will change his shirt.

If there are any Englishmen living in Baden, send them around to the San Bruno wharf. We have a cook there that never saw one he could not do up brown.

The ladies of the Catholic Church of this town will meet at Butchers' Hall on May 1 at 2 o'clock p. m., to consider the question of raising additional money for a Catholic church building.

THE PROPER WAY TO FLY THE FLAG

We noticed on Memorial Day that the flag was improperly displayed in various instances. Also we have had numerous letters on the subject. We therefore publish the official rules in this matter. Keep this for future reference:

The following rules to govern treatment of the national flag, when publicly displayed, were issued by the intelligence office at Ninth Corps Area headquarters recently in anticipation of Flag Day observances:

"The national colors may be displayed properly in only two ways: (1) freely unfurled from a staff; (2) hung flat with either vertical or horizontal length falling evenly.

The national colors should never be festooned or draped. For this purpose red, white and blue bunting should be used. Such bunting should be draped with blue uppermost.

When the colors are hung flat against a wall, either vertically or horizontally, the starry field should be at the top and to the observer's left.

At crossed staffs, with another flag of one nation above that of the observer's left, and its staff in front of that of the other flag.

When the American colors are in a cluster of flags, they should be in the center and at the highest point of the cluster, with the field of stars at the observer's left.

In marching, the national flag should be carried on the marching line of all other flags, or in front of the center of the line of flags.

Suspended between two buildings, over a street, the national flag should be hung vertically with the field to the north in an east-and-west street, or to the east in a north-and-south street.

When flown from a staff with other flags, not representing nationalities, the national colors should be at the top. International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another with which it is at peace.

When the flags of two or more nations are displayed at the same time, each flag should have a separate staff, and all flags should be of nearly the same size and should fly at the same elevation.

In such a display, the American flag should be to the observer's left of all other flags.

When the flag is used to decorate a speaker's platform, it should be hung vertically behind the speaker, or flown from a staff at the speaker's right.

The flag should never be used as a veil at unveiling ceremonies, nor for uniforms, hatbands, napkins, handkerchiefs, nor wrappers for any objects, and should never be allowed to touch the ground.

GOFF GETS 12 MORE AGENTS

The force under Captain Charles Goff, chief of general prohibition agents, has been increased by twelve men recently, it was learned this week.

The enlargement of Goff's force, all but three of whom are working "under cover," was acknowledged by prohibition officials, although names were withheld.

The increase in Goff's quota of agents was recognized as a part of a nationwide endeavor by Colonel Lincoln C. Andrews, new chief of prohibition and coast guard operations, to make a showing before Congress again meets.

South San Francisco High School Graduates

South San Francisco High School

Splendid Record Is Made By the Local Students

The Enterprise takes great pleasure this week in publishing the pictures of the ten scholars of the South San Francisco High School who graduated last December and also the nineteen who graduated on Friday evening last. A large audience of relatives and friends assembled in the high school on Friday evening on this banner occasion, the ninth June commencement exercises. The auditorium was appropriately decorated in the school colors of blue and white and the setting was further enhanced by the happy graduates assembled on the stage. It was an impressive scene, made more so by the splendid renditions by the high school orchestra, under the able directorship of Robert Reed. An added interesting feature of the evening was an historical address delivered by Judge Fletcher Cutler, president of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West organization. The salutatory by Myrtle Dukeman was delivered in an able manner as also was the valedictory by Annie Whitehouse. The high school glee club, under the direction of popular Miss Glifford, added just the right spirit to the happy occasion. Awards were made by Principal Guy J. Roney and included, besides the presenting of the diplomas, various cups, pennants and rings. On behalf of the class, Fletcher Cook presented their popular and efficient teacher, H. J. Holt, as a mark of the great esteem in which he is held, with a beautiful wrist watch. Following are the members of the June graduating class:

Graduated in June—Leta Lloyd, Sylvia Haubrich, Ruth Hattersley, Annie Whitehouse, Zilpha Dunlap, Myrtle Dukeman, Louise Reid, Matilda Bernardo, Bessie Murray, Buella O'Rourke, Jeanet Jones, Irene From, Philip Nolan, Fred Junker, Fletcher Cook, Everett Rolff, George Wohler, George Lundburg, Edwin Kingsland.

To Clara Poket went the great honor of being awarded three cups for her typing efficiency. One of these splendid cups was awarded in competition with the Jefferson Union High School; another, the Weller cup, in a contest at the local high school. George Wohler was awarded a cup for his work in typing, as was Edith Taylor, who won the Pedrett cup. In this same contest Violet Georgi won a pennant. The splendid scholarship cup and banner was won by the graduating class. As this is the second consecutive time that this class has been awarded this cup they will now have their numerals engraved thereon.

The low seniors captured the pennant for the best record in attendance. Also the low senior boys won the inter-class athletic cup, Harold Davis accepting on behalf of the boys. The freshman girls won the inter-class athletic cup. In addition to these awards, Dorothy Learmonth was presented with a cup for being the most proficient pupil in the high school. Sylvia Thomas and Zilpha Dunlap were awarded neat rings for the best all around record in athletics.

Alumni Banquet
The alumni banquet was held at the Poodle Dog Cafe at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening. A sumptuous dinner was served to the members of the alumni and immediately following the election of officers for the coming year took place. Ernest Robinson was elected president, Fletcher Cook, vice-president and Althea Spangler secretary-treasurer.

At 9 o'clock the party adjourned to the senior ball at the high school.

Senior Ball Huge Success
The senior ball, given by the low senior class of the local high school, at the high school auditorium Saturday evening, June 20, was a huge success. People from all over the county were among those present. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms and blue and white crepe paper, which are the school and also class colors. A large "25" was suspended from the chandelier.

One of the main features of the evening was the grand march, led by Principal Roney and Mrs. Roney. The dancing continued until 12 p. m.

VARNISH for Linoleum

You can insure long life to your linoleum by varnishing it while new with HUETER'S FLOOR and LINOLEUM VARNISH. The varnished surface then takes the wear and saves the linoleum beneath.

The bright pattern of printed linoleum covered with this clear, durable varnish, will keep its freshness indefinitely. A damp cloth or mop will remove all dirt from the surface.

Varnishing the linoleum is not difficult. A light coat should, under favorable conditions, dry over night, and will last several months. You need only tell us what surface you wish to finish and we will suggest the right varnish for that purpose. Each Hueter Varnish is as fitted to do its particular work as the Floor and Linoleum Varnish is to endure hard usage on floors.

You can now paint your property and pay on the Bass-Hueter Monthly Payment Plan. Call and let us explain this plan to you.

COLMA, LAWDALE

Colma, Lawndale, Miss Sylvia Haubrich.

The invitational dance given by the Girls' Club of Colma, at the Colma Community Center on Dunk Street, near Washington, Saturday evening, June 13, proved to be a great success. The rooms of the Center were artistically decorated with greens and the colors of the club in crepe paper streamers were festooned from the lights and ceiling, giving an Oriental appearance to the whole building. Julius Schindler's jazz orchestra furnished the music for the merry dancers. Refreshments were served. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. James Henderson, honorary director, and Violet Ver Linden, Vivian Benasini, Alvina Jose, Fabian Ver Linden, Estelle Atkinson, Anna Kennedy, Gussie Kling, Josephine Lee, Lucile Chaine Lemon, Irene Moresco, Anna Schindler, Emelle Wilke, Pauline Shinnay, Alice Thiel, Elsie Wilke and Bertha Thiel.

The graduates of Jefferson Grammar School, accompanied by Principal Helen Gilcrest and District Superintendent W. J. Savage, had a very enjoyable outing one day of last week when they visited the Fleischacker swimming pool, Golden Gate Park, had a delightful dinner at Hellwig's restaurant and later attended the Orpheum Theater. This is an annual affair enjoyed by the graduates of the local grammar school.

Our popular professor, William J. Savage, has been appointed a member of the San Mateo County Board of Education for the ensuing two years by Miss Pansy Abbott, county superintendent of schools.

The Catholic girls of St. Maximus Church have formed a club, with the following officers: Christine Michelson, president; Helen Rider, secretary; Louise Segale, vice-president; and Lorraine Wall, financial secretary. Father Bedford will act as chaplain and treasurer.

Mrs. Madeleine Fellows was chairman of the excellent whist party given in Masonic Hall, Daly City, last Wednesday evening for the benefit of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West. There were sixteen tables of whist players and many fine awards. A large, delicious looking cake, which was donated, was raffled and awarded to Mr. J. Belne. A few of those who carried off the valuable whist honors were: Mr. J. Belne, Mrs. James Reardon, Miss Bertha Thiel and Mr. Sidney Louis. There will be no July whist, the next one of these popular affairs taking place in Masonic Hall the third Wednesday of August.

Miss Helen Gilcrest, for several years principal of Jefferson Grammar School, has accepted the position of teacher in the San Mateo Grammar School. Her former pupils and present friends will be sorry to have her leave.

To Expand State Mining Bureau

SACRAMENTO, June 25.—Within a short time actual work of drafting a new legislative measure to expand the state mining bureau into a state department of mines and mineral resources will be undertaken by the department of mines and mining of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, assisted by the other mineral organizations of the state and the state mining bureau. The 1925 legislature passed unanimously Assembly Bill No. 470, providing for such a department, but it was pocket vetoed by Governor Richardson as "unnecessary." No opposition to the bill developed.

At a meeting of mining representatives last week with the local mining bureau, it was voted unanimously to proceed with a campaign in behalf of the new bill, to be introduced at the 1927 session. A statewide educational campaign on the dire necessity of a state department for California's fundamental industry, which is only ten million dollars behind agriculture in value of production, will be carried on.

Meetings on the subject throughout the mining districts are being planned by the Sacramento department. From now until the 1927 legislature adjourns the Sacramento department plans a continuous campaign in behalf of the new bill. Suggestions as to additional provisions to aid the industry are invited from mine operators.

Special attention is to be paid to acquainting the public with the importance of the mineral industry and the fact that the big fortunes and many of the larger structures of the cities were derived from the mines of California and Nevada. Hydraulic mining ditches formed the nucleus of the big hydro-electric systems.

Mrs. Pauline Henderson chaperoned a large party of school children on an outing to Thornton's Beach last Friday.

Have you purchased your tickets for the beautiful hope chest filled with hand-made articles which is being raffled by the drill team of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, for the purchase of regulation uniforms? This chest will be raffled at a dance to be given in the Colma Auditorium Saturday evening, August 15. Be sure to attend.

SACRAMENTO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HOLD YOSEMITE EXCURSION

SACRAMENTO, June 25.—Preparations are under way for the fourth annual Yosemite Valley excursion of the travel and resort bureau of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, which will leave this city August 1, to last seven days. These personally conducted tours into California's great scenic wonderland are eagerly looked forward to and larger numbers participate each year.

Manager S. J. Richard of the bureau announces that the special rate of $50 has been obtained this year. This includes railroad and stage transportation, all hotel accommodations and special trips about the Valley. No additional expenditure is required.

Saturday and Sunday, June 20 and 21, the bureau held its annual Lake Tahoe sociability tour, with approximate eight hundred persons participating. Three caravans, averaging fifty automobiles each, left the Chamber of Commerce Building at 5, 6 and 7 o'clock Saturday morning and proceeded to the lake. A feature of this year's tour was the novel 40 program staged at all the resorts by the Whiskerinos, Whiskerettes and members of the Covered Wagon Club of this city. Each resort held a dance in honor of the visiting Sacramentans.

Plans are also being made by the bureau for the annual tour to Calaveras County Big Trees, to be held probably the latter part of July. Sociability tours have already been conducted to Stinson's Beach and Lake County resorts.

Raiders Tell About Battle

Mrs. Assunta Barsuglia, proprietor of a cigar and candy stand at 222 Lux Avenue, South San Francisco, and her daughter, Mrs. Vera Blondini, appeared before United States Commissioner Thomas E. Hayden yesterday, charged with selling liquor and muzzing up prohibition officers.

On the first charge they may be released for lack of evidence, but on the second Captain Charles Goff and his three agents in their disheveled condition were the walking evidence of the women's activities.

Goff appeared minus a necktie. Agent A. H. Ahlin was limping with a bruised knee and wearing a safety pin to conceal a split in his trousers' leg, while Agents C. A. Housel and A. Fries lacked many hairs of their heads.

Captain Goff, who was at one time a pugilist, declared it was the hardest battle of his career. "Wildcats are tame kittens in comparison," he is said to have stated. The women were held on $500 bail and the case taken under advisement.—Daily News Leader.

Pacific Radio Exposition Plans Being Completed

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Plans for the second annual Pacific Radio Exposition, conducted by the Pacific Radio Trade Association, to be held in the Civic Auditorium, August 22 to 28, inclusive, are rapidly being completed. Heckert L. Parker, manager of the association, said today in announcing that 85 per cent of the floor space has been engaged by eastern manufacturers and distributors.

"This radio exposition, which is conducted on a co-operative basis, has become established as a buying mart for the trade in the Rocky Mountains and Pacific Coast states," Parker said. "Its primary object is the building up of the radio industry. Profit from this exposition is secondary."

No expense is being spared by the Radio Trade Association for the success of this exposition. Exhibit booths of the old Mission type of construction will predominate throughout the auditorium during that week, giving the exhibitors an opportunity to display their new lines and models to the retail, wholesale and foreign trade in congenial surroundings.

Radio experts from all parts of the world will attend this event, the show being held at this time of year to allow the national radio manufacturers to show their new models for the coming season and because radio reception conditions are best in the San Francisco Bay district during the summer, due to its ideal cool climate.

All the popular announcers of the large western broadcasting stations will co-operate with the radio show committee, which is headed by A. S. Lindstrom, and attend the exposition in a body, having a convention of their own during that week. Radio broadcasting stations KGO, KFRC and KPO will each furnish programs and broadcast all events from the exposition for two days. Radio station KIX will do the same one day. In addition to the broadcasting from a special broadcast studio erected on the stage, in view of the public, all of the radio entertainers who have appeared on programs during the past year will hold a reception and talk with the public in person. A public attendance of 100,000 persons is anticipated.

There will be government exhibits by the United States Department of Commerce and the United States district supervisor's office. They will give the trade valuable information on government regulations and interference problems. The United States Bureau of Standards will have a special exhibit under the direction of the Stanford University branch of the bureau.

Radio merchants are co-operating with the Pacific Radio Trade Association and will have special window exhibits. These displays will be made accessible to the visiting dealers.

This exposition is a part of the regular activities of the Pacific Radio Trade Association and has a place by itself, as it is conducted wholly by men of the radio industry, according to Herbert E. Metcalf, president of the association. The net profits of the event are divided between the exhibitors and the Pacific Radio Trade Association.

RAILROADS GRANT LOW JULY FOURTH FARES

One and one-half fare for the round trip between points where the one-way fare is $30.00 or less is announced today by all California lines for the benefit of Fourth of July holiday travelers. Tickets will be on sale July 3 and 4 and will have a return limit to July 7. No stopovers will be allowed on the excursion rates.

Birth of the Shilling

An Anglo-Saxon coin, worth five-pence, and marked with a cross, to enable it to be broken into four pieces, was known as a "scylling," from the word "skill," to divide; hence comes the modern term shilling.

3 R's TO FEATURE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

SACRAMENTO, June 25.—The "three R's" of old-time education—Reading, 'Riting and 'Rithmetic—will come into their own in California once more to a greater extent than at any time in the last decade, when the new laws passed by the last legislature become effective on July 24.

For the legislature has decreed, with approval of the governor, that too many "new fangled" subjects have been made mandatory in the public schools during the last few years and that too little time has been devoted to fundamentals. The long course of study prescribed by past legislatures has been revised and simplified.

Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, today sent out orders to all boards of school trustees and superintendents that a maximum of fifteen subjects are henceforth to be taught in California's elementary institutions. Of these twelve are fixed by law and three may be chosen by local boards.

The twelve required studies are:

Reading, writing, spelling, language study, arithmetic, geography, history of the United States and of California, civics, together with study of the United States Constitution; music, art, training for healthful living and a course in morals and manners. Eliminating all but the actually necessary subjects, the new law stresses the fundamentals, even in the reduced list, and declares that "at least 50 per cent of the school day must be devoted to reading, writing, spelling, language study and arithmetic."

Dollars Torn In Two

WHEN you send your dollars away from home, it is like tearing them in two. You are getting only a part of the possible benefit which you might receive from them. You may get just as much actual value for them in merchandise but you are losing all of the reflex benefit which comes from home-spent dollars. Home-spent dollars go toward building up this community, and whatever builds up this community benefits you, be you merchant, manufacturer or laborer.

SINGLE U.S. CITIES HAVE MORE TELEPHONES THAN ENTIRE FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Telephone facilities are so much more plentiful in the United States than elsewhere that a single American city will often be found to have more telephones than an entire foreign country. For example, New York City has more telephones than the whole of Great Britain; Chicago has more than all France. There are more telephones in the exchange area of Boston than there are in the entire Commonwealth of Australia. The whole Kingdom of Italy boasts fewer telephones than the city of San Francisco, Belgium has fewer than St. Louis, and so on.

It would be difficult to find more convincing proof of America's telephone supremacy than is afforded by the above diagram. It is a graphic illustration of the extent to which these individual cities in the United States exceed whole foreign countries in number of telephones.

Delinquent Tax List

Of the City of South San Francisco

State of California

For the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1925

Default having been made in the payment of taxes levied in the year 1924 for the City of South San Francisco for the year ending June 30th, 1925, upon the real and personal property described in the delinquent tax list hereto appended, now, therefore, I, Daniel McSweney, Deputy Tax Collector for the City of South San Francisco, by virtue of authority in me vested, hereby give public notice that unless the taxes delinquent as appear in said list, together with the penalties and costs, are paid on or before the sale dates given below, the real estate, upon which taxes are a lien, will, by operation of law, be sold to the State of California on

TUESDAY, JUNE 30TH, 1925

(Except any lot, piece or parcel on said list which has heretofore been sold to the State.)

DOLLARS AND CENTS

Public notice is hereby given that the figures appearing opposite, following last and after each description of property in the real estate portion of this delinquent tax list for 1924, in and for the City of South San Francisco, were intended to and do represent respectively in dollars or in cents, or in dollars and cents, as the case may be, the amount due for taxes and costs in the manner as follows, to-wit: when or where two figures appear there-in in CENTS were intended to be and are represented when or where more than two figures thus appear therein, cents were intended to be, and are represented by the last two figures occupying and appearing at the right hand, and the figures occupying and appearing at the left hand of the said last two figures and separated therefrom by a space, were intended to and do represent DOLLARS, so that the amount due for taxes and costs in the respective cases aforesaid are thus expressed in dollars and cents.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

PROPERTY TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Special attention is hereby directed to the NOTICE OF SALE, published in the Addenda to this list, of property heretofore sold to the State and which in pursuance of law will, on the 30TH DAY OF JUNE, 1925, at 10 o'clock A. M., be offered for sale to the highest bidder at the Tax Collector's Office in the City Hall in the City of South San Francisco. All taxpayers are requested to examine carefully the Delinquent Tax List and report errors, if any, immediately.

Capt. Chas. Goff Is Again Busy

Capt. Charles Goff, leading a party of prohibition agents, visited South San Francisco again Friday night and made six arrests in raids on three establishments.

The first place raided was the Twelve Mile House, on the outskirts of South San Francisco, near the cemeteries. Here Agent Harry W. Taylor of San Mateo, jumped over a back fence, surprised those in the resort and seized a quantity of liquor. Angelo Paglino and Louis Bargaschi were arrested.

Second Arrest

The raiders next went to 222 Lux Avenue. This place had been raided on the previous night, when Mrs. Assunta Barsuglia, wife of the proprietor, and her daughter, Mrs. Vera Blondini, battled the officers. The officers found a quantity of liquor again last night and arrested Mrs. Barsuglia a second time. Her husband, Louis Barsuglia, was also taken into custody and about three hundred gallons of wine confiscated.

Working with lightning speed, the raiders next rushed next door to 220 Lux Avenue, entered the residence there and found a 15-gallon grappa still in operation in the kitchen. Tony Martin and Alex Bertoldi were arrested. The agents declare that Martin is the same man who was arrested a few nights ago in a raid on the Norman Hotel in South San Francisco.

ASSOCIATION EXPLAINS THE CANADIAN IMPORT REGULATIONS ON TOURISTS

Thousands of California motorists who are planning trips this summer into the Pacific Northwest and British Columbia will save themselves much inconvenience and possibly some expense by carefully complying with the Canadian customs regulations, according to George S. Grant, manager of the touring bureau of the California State Automobile Association.

Wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles and similar personal effects of persons arriving in Canada are passed free as travelers' baggage without entry at the customs office, but this provision is limited to such articles as are in use by travelers and necessary and appropriate for their wear and use for the immediate purpose and convenience of the journey, and does not include merchandise or articles intended for other persons or for sale, according to Grant.

In addition to travelers' baggage, persons visiting Canada for a limited period may take with them such guns, fishing tackle, canoes, camping equipment, musical instruments, cameras, etc., as they require for their own use while in Canada, by reporting the same to the customs officer at the port of entry and depositing with him a sum of money equal to the duty on such articles.

The money thus deposited will be refunded if the articles are exported from Canada and identified at the customs port where imported or at another port within six months from the time of entry. The articles must be produced and their identity attested to before a Canadian customs officer at the place of export or before a customs officer at a place outside of Canada.

lly, the Oldsmobile which we know so well, in favor of a Studebaker roadster; Sanford Robbins is driving a new Moon Six with a California top, a very pretty machine.

The sporting instincts of several of the brethren were aroused the other day by the presence near our wharf of a large shark. We understand that Lyle Woodman and Garcia dropped a rock on his head. The body was not recovered. These two gentlemen, with Hal Jacobs, spent Sunday at the pottery wharf fishing with moderate success.

Lyle Woodman has joined the radio bugs' club, having acquired a 3-tube neutro-reflex receiver. Lyle is very enthusiastic and we believe loses much good sleep because of his interest in the science.

And speaking of radio, we are reminded that two of our illustrious fellowmen, Pat Bowler and Doc Hicks, were using the back alley telephone poles as antennae. Pat discovered one evening when he was entertaining with a radio party that the phone company had severed connections with the Bowler residence, had in fact, cut Pat's wires loose on the pole end. Such are the trials and tribulations of the radio fan. Doc Hicks' wires are still up, we believe, because he had foresight enough to talk it over with the phone people before putting up the wires.

Beautiful Hair!

Both men and women are assured of a beautiful and luxuriant growth of hair by using "Woodson's Medicated Shampoo," the scientific treatment for the scalp and hair. It makes you look years younger, gets rid of dandruff, checks falling hair, relieves itching scalp, grows new hair and keeps the scalp in a healthy condition. Try it and notice the difference. 50 cents a jar.
